Value Driven

Functionality, durability and clean design are guiding principles, yet no criteria is more important than providing value. Value is engineered into every product.

Value is achieved because we have over a hundred years of experience, a large inventory of existing tooling, and are extremely vertically integrated. Virtually all our products are made in house.

We are especially proud of our American workforce and feel we can out work, out design and out produce our foreign competitors to deliver value across all our lines.

Catalog = Idea Book

Because the products in this catalog are almost all manufactured in house, we gladly customize designs to meet your unique needs (quantity required).

Whether a custom color, a custom size, or a totally new product that uses similar materials as an existing product, we are ready to offer options for quantity opportunities.

Product innovation is customer driven by experienced design, project manager, and art teams that work closely with you, the best customers in the world.

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Quick Quoting

Metals

- Aluminum – A lightweight metal, non-magnetic. Anodizes and powder coats well.
- Steel – Three times the weight and strength of aluminum but a third the cost making their relative utility a "push" value wise. Powder coats very well.

Finishing

- Powder coating – An electrostatic process whereby plastic polymers get fused to the metal with excellent coverage and adhesion. Any color is available including textures & glimmers. Good on aluminum and steel.
- Anodizing – Appropriate for aluminum, not steel. Virtually all our aluminum tubing is stocked in house in an etched and clear satin anodized finish.

Packing

- Boxes and inserts are manufactured in-house because of the importance of getting the product to market intact.
